4. Venue is proper in the Eastern District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because the conduct making up the basis of the complaint took place in this judicial district.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff is a resident of Kings County, New York.

6. Defendant, MIKES DINER, is a domestic business corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, with a principal place of business at 630 Utica Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11203.

9. Defendant, ANDREW KOURKOUMELIS, is a co-owner, shareholder, director, supervisor, managing agent, and proprietor of the Corporate Defendants, who actively participates in the day-to-day operations of the Corporate Defendants and acted intentionally and maliciously and is an employer pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d) and Regulations promulgated thereunder, 29 C.F.R. § 791.2, as well as New York Labor Law § 2 and the Regulations thereunder, and is jointly and severally liable with the Corporate Defendants.

10. The Individual Defendants exercise control over the terms and conditions of their employees' employment, including Plaintiff, in that they have and have had the power to: (i) hire and fire employees, (ii) determine rates and methods of pay, (iii) determine work schedules, (iv) supervise and control the work of the employees, and (v) otherwise affect the quality of the employees' employment.

11. The Individual Defendants are present on the premises of the Corporate Defendants on a daily basis, actively supervise the work of the employees, and mandate that all issues concerning the employees' employment – including hours worked and pay received – be authorized and approved by them.

12. Upon information and belief, at least within each of the most recent three (3) years relevant to the allegations in this Complaint, the Corporate Defendants – either jointly or severally, were, and continue to be, “enterprises engaged in commerce” within the meaning of the FLSA in that they (i) have and have had employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, or that handle, sell, or otherwise work on goods or materials that have been moved in or produced for commerce, and (ii) have and have had an annual gross volume of sales of not less than $500,000.

13. Defendants continuously employed Plaintiff to work as a non-exempt grill cook for Defendants' twenty-four (24) hour restaurant from in or about 1999 until on or about August 27, 2016.

14. The work performed by Plaintiff was directly essential to the business operated by Defendants.

15. Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff his lawfully earned overtime compensation in direct contravention of the FLSA and New York Labor Law.

16. Defendants knowingly and willfully failed to pay Plaintiff his lawfully earned “spread of hours” premium in direct contravention of the New York Labor Law.

17. Plaintiff has satisfied all conditions precedent to the institution of this action, or such conditions have been waived.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. The Individual Defendants actively participate in the day-to-day operation of the Corporate Defendants. For instance, the Individual Defendants personally hire and fire the employees, supervise and direct the work of the employees, instruct the employees how to perform their jobs, and correct and/or reprimand the employees for any errors made.

19. The Individual Defendants create and implement all critical business policies, including decisions concerning the number of hours the employees work, the amount of pay that the employees are entitled to receive, and the manner and method by which the employees are to be paid.

20. In or about 1999, Defendants hired Plaintiff to work as a non-exempt grill cook for Defendants' twenty-four (24) hour restaurant known as Mike's Diner, located at 630 Utica Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

21. Plaintiff worked continuously for the Defendants in that capacity until on or about August 27, 2016.

22. Plaintiff worked over forty (40) hours per week.

23. From the beginning of the six (6) year limitations period beginning in September 2010 and continuing through the remainder of his employment on or about August 27, 2016, Plaintiff worked five (5) days per week, and his work schedule consisted of ten (10) hours per day on Monday and Tuesday from 9:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m.; and twelve (12) hours per day on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday from 6:00 p.m. until 6:00 a.m.

24. From the beginning of the six (6) year limitations period beginning in September 2010 and continuing through the remainder of his employment on or about August 27, 2016, Plaintiff was not paid proper overtime compensation. During this period, Plaintiff was paid, in cash, at the rate of $10 per hour straight time for all hours worked, and worked fifty-six (56) hours per week. Work performed above forty (40) hours per week was not paid at the statutory rate of time and one-half as required by state and federal law.

25. Upon paying Plaintiff his cash wages each week, the Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with wage statements setting forth, among other things, Plaintiff's gross wages, any deductions from Plaintiff's gross wages, and Plaintiff's net wages.

26. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with an annual wage notice setting forth, among other things, his regular hourly rate of pay and corresponding regular overtime rate of pay.

27. The Corporate Defendants are engaged in related activities performed by the Defendants for a common business purpose.

28. The Corporate Defendants utilized Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees in a fungible and interchangeable manner as workers in the business operated by the Defendants.

29. The Corporate Defendants each engage in related activities, namely, providing restaurant services to the general public for profit.

30. The Corporate Defendants shared Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay their employees by the same method, share control over the employees, and are themselves under common control.

31. The Corporate Defendants are controlled by the same owners or owner group, operating as a unified operation and, upon information and belief, each provide mutually supportive services to the substantial advantage of the other such that each entity is operationally interdependent of each other and, therefore, may be treated as a single enterprise.

32. Plaintiffs' job performance and responsibilities, as well as the responsibilities of other similarly situated employees, was controlled by one person or group of persons, corporations, or other organizational units acting together.

33. An arrangement existed between the Corporate Defendants, whereby each entity agreed to share the services of Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.

34. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees either the FLSA overtime rate (of time and one-half), or the New York State overtime rate (of time and one-half), in direct violation of the FLSA and New York Labor Law and the supporting federal and New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

35. Defendants knowingly and willfully operated their business with a policy of not paying Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees "spread of hours" premium for each day that they work a shift in excess of ten (10) hours, in direct violation of the New York Labor Law and the supporting New York State Department of Labor Regulations.

36. At all relevant times, upon information and belief, and during the course of Plaintiff's employment, the Defendants failed to maintain accurate and sufficient time and pay records.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

37. Plaintiff brings this action individually and as class representative on behalf of himself and all other current and former non-exempt employees who have been or were employed by Defendants between September 22, 2013 through the date that the opt-in period expires as ultimately set by the Court (the "Collective Action Period"), and who were compensated at rates less than time and one-half for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek (the "Collective Action Members").

38. The collective action class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. Although the precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts upon which the calculation of that number are presently within the sole control of the Defendants, upon information and belief, there are more than forty (40) Collective Action Members who worked for the Defendants during the Collective Action Period, most of whom would not be likely to file individual suits because they lack adequate financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims. Therefore, Plaintiff submits that this matter should be certified as a collective action under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

39. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Collective Action Members and has retained counsel that is experienced and competent in the fields of employment law and class action litigation. Plaintiff has no interests that are contrary to or in conflict with those members of this collective action.

40. This action should be certified as a collective action because the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of either inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class, or adjudications with respect to individual members of the class that would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudication, or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests.

41. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, since joinder of all members is impracticable. Furthermore, inasmuch as the damages suffered by individual Collective Action Members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation make it virtually impossible for the members of the collective action to individually seek redress for the wrongs done to them. There will be no difficulty in the management of this action as a collective action.

42. Questions of law and fact common to the members of the collective action predominate over questions that may affect only individual members because Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to all members. Among the common questions of law and fact common to Plaintiff and other Collective Action Members are:

- a. Whether the Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members within the meaning of the FLSA;
- b. Whether the Defendants failed to keep true and accurate wage and hour records for all hours worked by Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members;

- c. What proof of hours worked is sufficient where the employer fails in its duty to maintain time records;
- d. Whether the Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek, in violation of the FLSA and the regulations promulgated thereunder;
- e. Whether the Defendants' violations of the FLSA are willful as that terms is used within the context of the FLSA; and,
- f. Whether the Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, liquidated and statutory damages, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs and disbursements.

43. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty that will be encountered in the management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a collective action.

44. Plaintiff and others similarly situated have been substantially damaged by the Defendants' wrongful conduct.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

45. Plaintiff sues on his own behalf and on behalf of a class of persons under Rules 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

46. Plaintiff brings his New York Labor Law claims on behalf of all persons who were employed by Defendants at any time since September 22, 2010 (the "Class Period") who were non-exempt employees within the meaning of the New York Labor

Law and have not been paid statutory overtime compensation and/or “spread of hours” premium in violation of the New York Labor Law (the “Class”).

47. The persons in the Class identified herein are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. Although the identity and precise number of such persons is unknown, and the facts upon which the calculation of that number may be ascertained are presently within the sole control of the Defendants, the Class consists of all non-managerial current and former employees and, therefore, is so numerous that joinder is impracticable and most of whom would not be likely to file individual suits because they lack financial resources, access to attorneys, or knowledge of their claims.

48. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the Class, and a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy, particularly in the context of wage and hour litigation, where individuals lack the financial resources to vigorously prosecute a lawsuit in federal court against a corporate defendant.

49. Defendants have acted on grounds generally applicable to the Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the Class as a whole.

50. Plaintiff has committed himself to pursuing this action and has retained counsel experienced in employment law and class action litigation.

51. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the NY Class members. Plaintiff understands that, as class representative, he assumes a fiduciary responsibility to the Class and Collective Action Members to represent their interests fairly and adequately, and that he must consider the interests of the Class and Collective Action Members just as he would represent and consider his own interests, and that he may not favor his own interests over those of the Class or Collective Action Members.

52. Plaintiff recognizes that any resolution of a class action lawsuit, including any settlement or dismissal thereof, must be in the best interests of the Class and Collective Action Members. Plaintiff understands that in order to provide adequate representation, he must remain informed of litigation developments and he understands that he may be called upon to testify in depositions and at trial.

53. Plaintiff has the same interests in this matter as all other members of the Class and Plaintiff's claims are typical of the Class.

54. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class which predominate over any questions solely affecting the individual members of the Class, including but not limited to:

- a. Whether the Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Class members within the meaning of the New York Labor Law;
- b. Whether the Defendants failed to keep true and accurate wage and hour records for all hours worked by Plaintiff and the Class members;
- c. What proof of hours worked is sufficient where the employer fails in its duty to maintain time records;
- d. Whether the Defendants failed to pay the Plaintiff and the Class members overtime compensation for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek, in violation of the New York Labor Law and the regulations promulgated thereunder;

- e. Whether the Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and the Class members “spread of hours” premium for each day they worked a shift in excess of ten (10) hours, in violation of the New York Labor Law and the regulations promulgated thereunder;
- f. Whether the Defendants’ violations of the New York Labor Law are willful as that term is used within the context of the New York Labor Law; and,
- g. Whether the Defendants are liable for all damages claimed hereunder, including but not limited to compensatory, liquidated and statutory damages, interest, costs, attorneys’ fees, and costs and disbursements.
